INSURANCE

- A. Artist agrees to furnish insurance for the artwork identified in the inventory list above, if desired by Artist. Artist understands that neither the City of Roseville, nor Blue Line Arts carries a specific policy of insurance to cover works of art nor other property such as that identified for exhibition. Artist further understands and agrees that, although precautions will be taken to protect these works, Artist will not hold the City of Roseville or Blue Line Arts, their officials, employees, agents, contractors, insurers and/or volunteers responsible for damage, loss or theft of exhibited work.

PHOTOGRAPHY RELEASE

- A. Artist hereby grants the City of Roseville employees and Blue Line Arts the right to photograph or otherwise record the works of art or other property in any medium for the sole purposes of promotional advertising or education.

POLICIES

Please initial next to each statement.

- A. _____ A Blue Line Arts representative must meet with Artist on the day of installation to review the contract and answer any questions that may arise.
- B. _____ If Artist would like to make any changes to their artwork after it has been installed, a Blue Line Arts representative must accompany Artist to the Civic Center.
- C. _____ If, for any reason, the Artist needs to remove any or all of their artwork, the Artist must receive verbal or written confirmation from a Blue Line Arts representative before taking action.
- D. _____ The Civic Center is a government building; the Artist must not tamper with the lighting or any other structures within the building during the time of their exhibition.
- E. _____ If any issues arise, the Artist is to inform and receive confirmation a Blue Line Arts representative before taking action.
- F. _____ Artists are required to use decorum when interacting with City employees, meaning treating them with respect and following proper protocol if any issues arise.

CONSEQUENCES

- A. Inability to adhere to the aforementioned policies will result in the removal of art from the City of Roseville Civic Center. Additionally, Artist may be responsible for partial or full reimbursement to the City of Roseville for any damages incurred from tampering with display equipment (i.e. hooks, wires, lighting, wall, etc.) and or/other City of Roseville Civic Center facility features.
