

Art Stipend Opportunity – for High School Students

The Susan Cooley-Gilliom Artist in Residence and Teaching (ART) Program Fund at the Placer Community Foundation provides financial support to local high school art students for the purpose of participating in an in-depth workshop taught by a visiting, nationally-known artist. Workshops are held in Placer County and will focus on media specific to each visiting artist.

In October 2019 the ART program's visiting artist is textile artist Ana Lisa Hedstrom. Hosted by Blue Line Arts, Ms. Hedstrom is holding 2-day workshops in Roseville, CA. Stipends to attend a workshop free of charge will be awarded to artists in Placer County for the following:

- Workshop Session II, All Skill Levels, October 25, 26, 2019

For detailed information about these workshops visit bluelinearts.org.

About Ana Lisa Hedstrom

Ana Lisa is known for her signature textiles based on contemporary adaptations of shibori. Her textiles are included in the collections of major museums including the Cooper Hewitt, the Museum of Art and Design, and the De Young Museum. Her work has been exhibited and published internationally. She has taught and lectured at numerous international Shibori conferences and schools. Her awards include two NEA grants and she is a fellow of the American Craft Council.
