Apply Here

Tables and chairs available upon request. To apply please follow this link or use the provided QR code. Mass produced, AI, and 3D printed items will not be permitted in the market.

Booth Fee must be paid a minimum of 7 days before the scheduled market. Failure to do so will result in forfeiture of the booth space which will be awarded to another applicant. Space is provided using a first come first served basis. Sellers are not permitted to have more than one table at each market out of consideration of space.

Electric outlets are not readily available. If you need to be able to access electricity please make a note on your application. We may not be able to always accommodate this request. Wifi is available indoors. Outdoor wifi is fairly weak. It is recommended that sellers have their own internet hotspot or prioritize cash sales.

Cancellation Policy: Sellers may withdraw from their vendor commitment at any time for a full refund if requested via email to adriana@bluelinearts.org more than 1 week before the scheduled market date. If a seller cancels 1 week or less before the scheduled market date, Blue Line Arts maintains the right to keep 100% of the associated booth fee. In cases of emergencies, a vendor may be able to move their commitment to another market date at the discretion of Blue Line Arts. If Blue Line Arts cancels the market, all associated booth fees will be reimbursed to all participating vendors. In case of rain, vendors outdoors in zone 2 & 3 will have the option to withdraw from the market and receive a full refund.

All vendors must hold a valid California seller's permit. Blue Line Arts reserves the right to request proof and deny participation if not provided. Applications without a seller's permit will not be considered.

Schedule

Set-up time: 1 hour before the market opens

Clean-up time: the hour after the market closes

SELLER'S PERMIT INFORMATION

All vendors selling physical goods in California are required to hold a valid California Seller's Permit.

You must provide your seller's permit number prior to the event.

- If you already have a permit:
 - Please ensure your permit is active and applicable to this event.
- If you do NOT have a permit:
 - You must apply for a temporary seller's permit before the event.

Apply here:

<https://www.cdtfa.ca.gov/formspubs/pub107/applying-for-a-sellers-permit.htm>

How to Apply for a Temporary Seller's Permit

1. Visit the application link above or use QR code to the right.
2. Select "Register a New Business Activity"
3. Create or log into your CDTFA account
4. Complete the application:
 - Select that you are selling tangible goods
 - Enter your personal/business information
5. Add this event as your selling location:
 - Blue Line Arts Gallery, Roseville, CA
 - Use the event dates provided
6. Submit and download your permit

PERMIT HERE

Good to know:

- The permit is free
- It typically processes quickly (often same day)
- Temporary permits are valid for events under 90 days

Sales Tax Responsibility

Vendors are individually responsible for:

- Collecting applicable sales tax
- Reporting and remitting taxes to the state

Blue Line Arts does not collect or report sales tax on behalf of vendors.
